Survey Shows Great Need For School

Present Plant Inadequate to Care for Needs of Pupils

Survey Staff Recommends a New Building to Cost $165,000

The results of the recent survey will have a far-reaching influence as indicated by Soledad following last week's meeting at the club house. The meeting, under the auspices of the chamber of commerce committee on education, of which E. D. Burbank is chairman, was turned over to the survey staff of the Pasadena schools immediately following the dinner, and the reports of the various members of the survey staff were presented under the direction of Superintendent John A. Sexson.

That portion of the survey showing that a new building costing $180,000 could be constructed at a cost of only $45,000 for each $5,000 property valuation, per year, was perhaps the outstanding fact presented. This includes an auditorium with a seating capacity of from 500 to 700, a structure which in itself would fill a long-felt public need.

The survey was presented without recommendation except as to the advisability of constructing at the earliest possible date, the school plant as suggested.

Two hundred copies of the 28-page report were prepared and placed in the hands of those attending the dinner and may be seen by any interested. The findings and recommendations of the staff as presented at the meeting are as follows:

Population Study
The present school population in kindergarten and grades 1 to 6 of the Sierra Madre elementary district is 360.

The estimated population for the Sierra Madre school district is set at 615 pupils by 1940.

Child Accounting
An adequate child accounting system is essential to the well-being of a proper functioning school program.

In a well planned school building, proper provisions for space in which the child accounting work of the school can be done is (Continued on Page 7)

Allen Lowers Trail Record Unofficially

An unofficial attempt to break the Mt. Wilson trail record set by Harold Williams of Sierra Madre on March 16 was successful a week ago Sunday when Paul Allen of Los Angeles and August Alquist both lowered Williams' time of 36 minutes for the 3 1/2-mile jaunt from this city to Orchard Camp.

Allen's time Sunday was 33 minutes and 26 seconds. Alquist finished in 35 minutes and 48 seconds. Both these men ran in the official race of March 16, conducted under the auspices of Phil Hartman of Orchard Camp. But Allen was disqualified as a professional even though he tied with Williams for first place.

Other contestants Sunday were William H. Quivira, 36:09; Carl Miller, 37:33; Wm. H. Chisholm, 38:05; Robert Eickman, 40:19; and Eugene Alblair, 40:33.

Mr. Hartman announces that a Boosters Club is being organized to make the races next year more interesting and to offer larger prizes. Election of officers for this club will be held Saturday, May 4.

WANTED: MORE LOCAL NEWS OF INTEREST TO LOCAL PEOPLE

Like to see your name in the paper? If you are not too modest you will admit that you do, and at any rate you must confess that you like to read in the home-town paper of the doings of your friends and neighbors.

Of course they like to read of your doings, which all goes to show that we are possessed of a perfectly natural human trait, that is, interest in our fellow men. Someone remarked once upon a time that she did not like to live in a small town because everybody knew too much about her business, but the answer came back: "Well, that's all right, for you know just as much about theirs." That intimate association is what makes life so pleasant in smaller communities and we want the Sierra Madre News to help cement your mutual interests by filling this paper chock full of little local or personal items.

Won't you help us by phoning, writing or telling us what you have been doing, who has been visiting you, what you hear from former residents of Sierra Madre, and anything else that we might not be able to find out otherwise? We will do our best to make the News more and more interesting but with the editor being new here it will be difficult to make the rounds. Please phone local or social items either to the office, Main 260, or to Mrs. Asbury at her residence, Green 88.

Come on now, don't be so modest. Tell us all about it.

Artists In Splendid Program

Large Audience Greeted 'Home Folk' With Spontaneous Appreciation

The reason for the present vogue for our own American singers and instrumentalists, was plainly apparent to the large audience gathered at the Woman's Club house Tuesday night to hear the song recital by our own Donald Thayer, and his assisting artists, Oscar Rasbach and Miss Orline Burrow.

With the exception of two numbers the famous American baritone sang in English, permitting the audience to enjoy to the full his splendid artistry, fine diction and best of all, a marvelous tone quality over which he assumed absolute control. The lyric quality of this fine voice was particularly apparent in the exquisite compositions of Oscar Rasbach. The singer used first, "Trees," which is now known and loved everywhere. But especially delightful was the newest song by this Sierra Madre musician, "Overtones." No song in recent years has so appealed to the writer as this number, still in manuscript, and which seems certain to rival "Trees" in popularity. The number requires exquisite phrasing and sound musicianship on the part of the singer to bring out all its subtle charm, and Mr. Thayer's interpretation was thoroughly adequate. "A Wanderer's Song," also by Mr. Rasbach, was much enjoyed.

"Lie There, My Love," MacCunn, was one of the unforgettable numbers rendered by Mr. Thayer.

Miss Burrow received a real ovation from her Sierra Madre friends and neighbors. This young musician apparently has everything that can be required for a successful career in the music world—a most charming personality, sound musicianship and an extraordinary technical skill. She is winning her place in music not alone by natural musicianship and personal charm, but by unremitting patience and, in short, putting herself wholeheartedly into her work. She chose three Kreisler numbers and a composition by Sarasate as her part of the program and was forced to add two more in response to insistent entreaties.

Mr. Rasbach as accompanist proved his ability not only as a creator of music but as an interpreter, as well, and his accompaniments were most artistic and satisfying.

Local Players Place Second In Tournament

The Sierra Madre Community Players, under the direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, brought home a handsomely engraved silver cup presented to them by the Santa Ana chamber of commerce as second prize in the Southern California tournament of one-act plays open to little theatre groups. Santa Monica Theatre Guild won first honors out of ten contestants. The contest was held at Santa Ana Friday and Saturday evenings.

The caste of the local players included Mr. and Mrs. James N. Hawks and David Buchan. The play presented was entitled "The Workhouse Ward," a skit which has been thoroughly enjoyed here as produced by the above caste. The cup is being displayed this week in the drug store window of F. H. Hartman and Son.

Canyon Pool Plans Please City Council

Bids to Be Opened at Same Time as Those for Bathhouse

Council Also Authorizes the Purchase of Pumping Equipment

As the result of authorization by the City Council at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon, bids are being advertised for on another page of this issue for the Canyon swimming pool. Plans and specifications presented by City Engineer O. A. Gerlich were accepted. The bids will be opened at 2:30 p. m., May 14, at the same time the bids for the municipal bath house and comfort station for the Canyon are to be opened.

City Clerk Dietz was also authorized at this session of the council to advertise for bids on the new centrifugal booster pump and deep well turbine for Well No. 1, which expenditure is to come under the bond issue enlargement program for the water department.

A resolution was passed authorizing the city clerk to send a telegram to Governor Young protesting the bill which has just been passed by the state legislature, which if approved would make a city liable for injury or death to person, or property damage as result of the negligent operation of a motor vehicle by any of its officers, agents or employees. Such an enactment, it was pointed out, would increase materially the cost of city government.

After the close of the meeting the councilmen and other interested citizens made an inspection tour of the new reservoir under construction.

Bible Conference Holds 5th Annual At Local Church

Next week Tuesday and Wednesday, May 7 and 8, the Annual May Bible Conference will be held in Bethany Church. Although this is under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society, it is not in any sense a missionary conference. Each speaker will bring a practical, devotional, inspirational message, aiding the hearers to come into closer fellowship with God.

The conference is strictly interdenominational and you will find a friendly welcome, whatever your faith may be. No finer group of speakers (a list of whom appeared in the last issue) could be heard anywhere, and large numbers come many miles to attend all the sessions. Luncheon is provided at noon so the fellowship might be unbroken.

Hartman Drug Company Starts Twentieth Year

This week marks the twentieth anniversary of the Hartman Drug Store in Sierra Madre. F. H. Hartman started the business in May, 1909, and his son Rudolph became an official partner in January, 1919.

The firm is now known as Hartman & Son Drug Store and has enjoyed a steady, healthy growth. New fixtures and equipment have been added from time to time so that the store presents a very attractive appearance.

The Eteri Club held their Rosebud Banquet last Thursday night at the Bethany Temple with 35 members and guests present. The dinner was in charge of Mrs. Moote and her daughter and a delightful dinner was served.

Sanitation Problem Is On Program

Chamber of Commerce to Present Facts to Local Residents

Reorganization of District in June Cause of Prompt Action

Continuing the heavy program embarked upon by the new directorate of the local chamber of commerce, the bi-monthly meeting of the board Monday night will largely concern itself with completion of the plans for the next public meeting, tentatively set for Thursday night, May 30, at which local sanitation problems will be up for consideration.

As noted elsewhere in the News this week, meetings are being held looking toward the reorganizing of Metropolitan District No. 7 of which Sierra Madre was at one time a part. The reorganization will be effected early in June and it will be necessary for local residents to vote on whether or not they are to join in the proposition.

Data concerning the cost of looking up to the Pasadena system, the construction of Sierra Madre's share of the outfall sewer in the metropolitan plan, and the cost of the tri-city plant as planned by Monrovia will all be presented for consideration.

At its meeting of last week, the city council authorized City Engineer Gerlich to compile estimates of cost of the various proposals. These and other data will be submitted at the coming public meeting.

The proposed series of entertainments for the coming summer will also come up for consideration Monday night. The first of the series is to be provided by the local Community Players in an out-door rendition of a Shakespearean drama. This will be the Community Players' contribution to the summer concert series and will be unusually fine.

It is hoped that the committee will again be able to sponsor a 4th of July celebration. The "party" last year was one of the most successful from all points of view that has ever been held in Sierra Madre. From the games in the afternoon to the wonderful exhibition by the Volunteer Fire Department and the big free dance in the evening, the night of July 4th, 1928, stands out brightly in the list of social events of the past. The precedent thus set will undoubtedly be continued this year.

The meeting of the board will convene at 7:30 in the city council chamber, Monday night. The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

World War Veteran Passes Away Here

Bartholomew J. Dunlea, a World War veteran living at 161 Santa Anita Court, passed away Wednesday at the age of forty. Deceased leaves a widow and a 6-year-old son to mourn his passing. Funeral services were held Friday, May 3rd at St. Rita's church, interment taking place at Angeles Abbey Mausoleum, Compton. Ray Grant had charge of the remains.

Candidates File Petitions for the Coming Election

The nominating petitions of Ralph W. Stewart and Henry Clay Reavis as candidates for city councilmen in the recall election to be held in this city on May 25th, were filed with City Clerk Dietz today. They are in the field backed by the Central Ave. Property Owners Association.

Ralph W. Stewart has lived in this city for the past 6 or 7 years. He is a property owner and a taxpayer. Those who are acquainted with his activities know that he has shown marked ability along the lines of finance and organization.

Mr. Reavis has been a citizen of Sierra Madre since 1921 and owns property in the canyon where he has his home. He is a public accountant and has more than satisfied his many clients in this city as to his ability in the handling of business problems.

Sierra Madre Cafe Sold by Markham to Charles L. Sellers

The Sierra Madre Cafe, owned and operated for several months past by Mr. Markham, has recently been purchased by Charles L. Sellers, who formerly operated a milk route in this community for the Los Angeles Creamery.

GREETINGS FROM THE NEW EDITOR

IT is with the keenest anticipation of genuine pleasure that my family and I come to live and work with the good folks of Sierra Madre. The fame of this little city has traveled far and we have already found that the good things that have been said of it, were not one whit exaggerated.

I am sure that surprise and considerable regret will result from the announcement that Mr. Morgridge has consented to sell his interest in The Sierra Madre News after having worked with you for more than twenty years, but for the present, at least, it will not be necessary for me to try to fill his place in the community life for I understand that he and his family expect to continue to make their home here.

Mr. Eastwood will remain in the partnership and we are thoroughly agreed upon following out a conservative yet progressive policy such as will contribute to the general advancement of community welfare and civic pride. We wish to make this strictly YOUR local paper with genuine interest to all readers and benefit to the advertisers who make it possible. Naturally we are eager to have The Sierra Madre News go into every home in the city, for only in that manner can we acquaint all the people with the problems of their local government and the doings of their fellow townsmen, both of which they should know.

We sincerely believe that upon no other agency falls such a tremendous responsibility for the building up of a community as rests upon the local newspaper. We unflinchingly commit ourselves to this task but frankly admit that we will need and earnestly solicit your help and unselfish cooperation.

Joseph L. Asbury.

ADIOS

BREAKING off a business connection of 21 years is a step not easily taken. However, I have disposed of my interest in the Sierra Madre News and the future looms as a field of genuine adventure.

Since I came here in 1908 there have been great changes in Sierra Madre and the News, "all of which I saw, part of which I was." It has been a fascinating development in many ways. The constant procession of interesting characters who have crossed the stage, the friends who have appeared, some to pass on, some to remain, the sharing of joys and sorrows in the raising of one's own and other families, the mutual aspiration and striving in community affairs—all these involve the weaving of unbreakable bonds. These will hold, no matter where the future may take us. And for these deepest satisfactions of life I am grateful beyond the power of words to express.

I have always felt that I could not leave the News in other than good hands. It has meant too much to me. Mr. Eastwood who has been my hard-working partner during the past three years is well known for his varied ability and talents, not only in business but in community affairs. The community is deeply indebted to him for services already rendered. I believe Mr. Asbury will fit into the situation as few men could and will bring much of real worth to the community. In these two men Sierra Madre has a tremendous asset, for which it should render the utmost degree of support and cooperation.

George B. Morgridge.

Ball Players Lose All but The Bat Bag

Association Vacates Grounds at Intersection of Baldwin and Suffolk

Baseball fans in Sierra Madre are in sack cloth and ashes this week, for the old baseball diamond is no more. The local ball "park" blossomed as a rose last fall, when a few local enthusiasts promoted a movement to raise funds to build a ballpark, grandstand and buy suits for a dozen ball players. For several months the team took on all comers and gave the natives a taste of real baseball, usually, with an occasional exhibition of anything but, just as any amateur (or professional) team is liable to do. And the natives responded with fine enthusiasm until it seemed that Sierra Madre was on the way to making a place for itself in baseball circles hereabouts.

Just as the indications pointed to a well-organized team with plenty of punch and pep, the axe fell—they were told to stuff the bat bag with bats, the ball bag with balls and the water bucket with their tears and call it a day.

The ball diamond was not held under lease, the team being given permission by Mr. Yerxa to use it with no time limit set. Mr. Yerxa is said to believe the presence of the ball field hampers the selling value of the tract, and consequently refused permission for such continued use.

Certain interests had hoped the tract could be secured from Mr. Yerxa and turned into a public recreation park, but no definite movement has been started, and there is small probability that any such movement could secure support sufficient to put it thru. The city owns ground on Grand View which it is said could easily accommodate a ball diamond.

Progressive Civic League Is Organized

Prominent Residents Seek Harmony in Affairs of the City

The Progressive Civic League of Sierra Madre has been organized here with nearly a score of prominent residents elected to serve as officers or as members of the Advisory Board. The league is reported to have already signed two hundred members. Headquarters for the League have been established at 24 West Central Avenue.

As its initial staff of officers, the following were chosen: Oscar Seiling, president; Ralph V. Richardson, vice president; secretary, Laura E. Cadmus. The Advisory Board is as follows: Dr. Lloyd L. Krebs, Mrs. Agnes Robertson, Robert S. Corlett, Oscar Rasbach, Mrs. May Sturthall, Alexander Russell, George Schurmann, Joseph Weber, Mrs. Maude E. Rogers, Joseph P. Nash, George Blakeslee, George E. Hagwood, Henry Arden, Frank Spencer and William A. Thomas.

President Seiling said that the League proposes to take up the questions of sewers, schools, street improvements, as they arise, as well as all other matters of civic moment to the residents of the community. He stated further that a meeting will be called in the immediate future, which will be open to the entire public of the city, at which one of the most pressing problems now before the city will be presented in detail without prejudice and solely on the basis of the facts involved. As soon as preparations for this meeting are completed announcement of the date and location will be made in sufficient time to make it possible for all interested citizens to attend.

Miss Mary Brain, formerly of Sierra Madre and now of Los Angeles, is busy greeting old friends and demonstrating Fuller and Fuller toilet preparations at the Central Pharmacy this week.

No Shortage Of Water for Sierra Madre

New Reservoir Will Have Nearly 3,000,000-Gallon Capacity

Pouring of Concrete Started and Completed on Tuesday

Sierra Madre need have no fear of a water shortage even though the population increase from one third to one-half its present size for the new storage reservoir at the head of Grove street will practically double the present water storage capacity of Sierra Madre.

The pouring of 250 cubic yards of concrete for the 16-foot wall started at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning and continued without interruption until 5:30 p. m. that day. It was necessary to make one continuous pour in order to make the concrete set properly. This is one of the first reservoirs in this district in the construction of which was used the water cement ratio combined with the "fineness modulus" system which is the most modern method recommended by the Portland Cement Association. With this system it is possible to practically pre-determine the strength of the concrete work as the mixture is being prepared, according to O. A. Gerlich, city engineer in charge of the work.

This huge reservoir was started nearly two months ago on the site of the old city reservoir at the head of Grove street. The use of this site saved the city many thousands of dollars which would have been necessary to spend for land and excavating if another site had been chosen. By the present arrangement the entire work will cost approximately $25,000.

The city expects to be able to use the new reservoir by June 1 to 10 and will then have a water storage capacity of 5,000,000 gallons. Bids are being asked elsewhere in this issue for a centrifugal booster pump and a deep well turbine pump in order that the proper pumping facilities will be ready when the reservoir is completed. The turbine now in use has a capacity of only 900 gallons per minute and it will be turned in on the purchase of the new pump which must be able to pump 1,500 gallons per minute.

The maximum single day's consumption of water in summer is 2,600,000 gallons, according to James E. Carpentier, superintendent of streets and water, and this new reservoir will assure ample reserve protection against fires or any other emergency at all times, as well as providing for the future growth of the city of Sierra Madre.

The city council and other officials take this opportunity to extend a cordial invitation to the public to inspect this work on the reservoir which is just now at the most interesting stage. The huge tank is circular in form, having a diameter of 155 feet and a depth of 23 feet in the center. The walls are 16 feet and 3 inches high on the vertical side. It will all be completely covered over with a wood roof supported by massive concrete posts, and all together represents an admirable achievement for the city.

Prayer Union Holds Meeting In Bethany Hall

Last Tuesday, the Evangelical Prayer Union met in Bethany Hall. A large audience, composed of many persons from Los Angeles, Pasadena and other communities as well as Sierra Madre, felt that a most profitable day had been spent.

Rev. H. C. Waddell, director of the Prayer Union, took entire charge of the program, with Rev. L. G. Thompson and Dr. E. S. Bickford presiding over different hours. It was a day of genuine inspiration to all present.

The Evangelical Prayer Union is not a separate organization, but a fellowship of individuals in all evangelical churches co-operating for the promotion of the prayer life. They have held regular monthly meetings in various churches in Southern California for the past thirty years.

Edwin H. Wood passed away at his home at 425 Manzanita Ave., Wednesday, May 1, at the age of 54 years. He has been a resident of Sierra Madre for ten years and is survived by his devoted wife May Summerhays Wood and two daughters, Elizabeth and Virginia. Deceased was born in Chicago, Ill., and lived in that city for a number of years before coming west. He was connected with the county assessor's office in Los Angeles. Deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge and that order will have charge of the services which will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Grant Funeral Parlor. Interment will be in Pasadena.

Scholarship Group Meet For Banquet

Splendid Program Given at Woodrow Wilson Junior High School

"Castle of Dreams" was the theme of the second annual Scholarship Society banquet held at the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School, Friday, April 19. The decorations, planned and prepared by Miss Lee and her art classes, tended to carry out the theme in orchid and rose. The place-cards and favors were intricate. The artistic castles and the artfulness of flowers and ferns placed on the tables made a fairland of the school cafeteria.

Edward Lowell, president, presided at the banquet and began the program by introducing the guests of honor, Mrs. Hoblit, president of the Pasadena Board of Education; John A. Saxon, superintendent; Mr. Brown, principal of Wilson; Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Saxon and Miss Kathleen Loly, head of the language department in junior college. Other guests were representatives of other junior high school scholarship societies: Kate Boyd of Marshall, Max Miliken of McKinley, and Bernice Thiesen of Washington.

The mothers of Wilson P.T.A. of which Mrs. Phillip Senour is president, were responsible for the dinner.

The president said that the qualities which make for success were to be found in the study of lives of men in various walks of life who had done a service for humanity. Concerning the "Castle of Dreams" he remarked, "A man's success will go no farther than his ideals."

Irma O'Brien was the toastmaster for the evening, and she introduced the after-dinner speakers, who stated that men who had achieved their dreams made the world a better place. James Barrington spoke of Sir Calahad who dreamed of the Holy Grail and won it by living a pure life. His speech ended with the words, "To realize the most beautiful dreams, one's character must be pure." Eileen Walrod told how the service of education has built one of the highest towers in the Dream Castle by contributing opportunities for men and women. Other pinnacles, in the castle built by scientists, were told by Pearl Specht.

Moreland Kortkamp presented a fine interpretation on the piano of MacDowell's "Witches' Dance." Jean Crowley told of the popular hero, "Lindy," who built a tower in the Dream Castle by blazing an air trail between two great continents. She urged that one begin early in life to build a vision, keep sight of it, prepare for attaining it, and attain it. The business man, exemplified by J. J. Hill in Margaret Head's talk, is a stronghold in the castle, for it is he who penetrates new fields, making progress for humanity.

Herbert Quick commended Explorer Perry's will power which finally rewarded him by his reaching the North Pole. Elizabeth Morgridge, with exceptional skill and fine feeling, delighted her audience with the Third Movement from the "Ninth Concerto" by De Beriot. Treva Scott expressed how musicians have made golden steps to lift humanity to beautiful heights in the Castle of Dreams, even thru labor and suffering. Martine Newton read "The Quinine Alley," which expressed the spirit that carries one on to attaining one's dream.

Miss Loly of Pasadena Junior College, spoke on "Ships" which constitute the making of a well-balanced life, Scholarship, Citizenship, Friendship and Fellowship. She urged that students strive to attain membership in the C.S.P. which is an honor to not only college students, but to those in the business world as well. She said, "Success is doing what you can and want to do well."

A grand march was led by Mr. Sutherland and the program was closed by community singing led by Mr. Woolnough.

Miss Judith Tornell of the Wilson school helped to advise for the speeches. The faculty committee is Miss Pauline Handy, Mrs. Anna Mary Magnuson and Miss Mildred Scott.

Mrs. C. W. Weaver of Hollywood was a guest of Mrs. Paul Staples Monday night, coming to Sierra Madre especially to attend the Thayer recital. Mrs. Weaver is well known in Southern California musical circles. Mr. Weaver is with K.F.W.B. in the film metropolis.

Monrovia Theatre Continues to Draw With Fine Bills

Colleen Moore in "Why Be Good" opens at the Monrovia Lyric theatre Sunday night for a two-day stay. Vitaphone acts and late news reels complete an interesting bill.

"Speakeasy," Fox all-talking feature which caused much favorable comment down-town, comes Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with a Hal Roach comedy, "Thundering Troupes" on the same bill.

Vitaphone acts and latest news reels offer added interest in these programs. Manager A. J. Myers is bending every effort to provide the very finest entertainment procurable for his friends and patrons and the drawing power of his house in Sierra Madre is constantly increasing.

Miss Ella Shepard Bush returned Tuesday from San Diego where she visited relatives for a week. Miss Bush spent much time in the Museum of Fine Arts at Balboa Park and speaks interestingly of the Spanish paintings, both of the modern and old masters.

GARDEN SECTION

PICNIC

All club members are invited to join the garden section on this outing. Anyone who will drive her own car and take some passengers please phone Mrs. W. S. Hull, Blue 87, to that effect. Also anyone wishing transportation phone Mrs. Hull and she will try to arrange same.

Mrs. John H. Robertson was the guest of Mrs. Haskell Freeman at the Woman's Breakfast Club on Thursday. There were 600 women present with Fannie Hurst as the guest of honor.

CITY PARK

At 1 p. m. the section adjourned to the town park where Mr. Mackenzie Dodson, landscape advisor from the Jannock Nurseries, appeared and gave a most practical talk on "What the Home Gardener Should be Doing Now."

He advised us in listening to garden advice to catch and apply its spirit and principle and not make exact applications, which might not be suitable to the individual garden. All suggestions should be thought out thoroughly in relation to one's own climate and setting before putting them into practice. The speaker said a common mistake was cluttering up a garden with material that eventually grows too large for its position in relation to house or other plantings.

Picturing the final effect involves not only power and effort in visualization, but also a knowledge of what the individual plants will finally do.

The greatest mistake home gardeners are probably making now, it was thought, is in watering too often and too superficially. Long time and deep irrigation is better, except for seeds and seedlings. Extensive pruning should be over now, but all summer there will be need for many touches of pruning here and there.

Fertilization with chemicals and steamed bone meal should cease before hot weather, but barnyard manure, especially in liquid form, and blood meal can be applied where needed after copious watering, and watered or cultivated in.

Baking of soil should be prevented after watering by mulching or light cultivation, which practice also conserves moisture.

Sandy soils hold water poorly, and need more frequent watering and cultivation. Incorporation of barn yard manure helps. Ground covers could be used, as portulaca in rose beds. Roses can be watered overhead in hot weather, if prolonged to deep absorption and not in sun. In foggy weather the practice is conducive to mildew. This pest is best treated with the very fine form of sulphur applied on damp foliage. Aphids and other pests are combatted with sprays with a nicotine base used in soapy water. When soil is sour, indicated by growth of the small yellow-flowered clover-leaved oxalis, plasterers' lime should be used, except for certain shrubs and lilies. Seed-sowing of most annuals and many perennials may continue now, if done in some half-shady corner, or better, in flats. The watering must be done with care, with a soft, fine spray, and frequent cuttings of many things can still be grown in sand or sandy soil in half shade. Neglected "mums" may still be topped, divided and replanted. Gladiolas may be planted now and continuously for months. The ground should be fertilized before and not after planting these and deep watering is best.

Long sparse rows of "glads" are not artistic; thick rows or clumps are better. Dahlia roots may still be planted, or even the seed though these do better in cool climates. German iris, after blooming can be taken up and let dry till August, or allowed to dry in the soil, though summer watering is not so detrimental as to tulip and anemone bulbs.

Many Monrovians Attend Kiwanis Luncheon Here

Approximately twenty Kiwanians from Monrovia invaded the meeting of the local club Tuesday noon and taxed to the limit the resourcefulness of the members of the Womans' Club who served creamed chicken on hot biscuits, with proper trimmings, and topped off with strawberry shortcake. The local members were of divided opinion as to whether this delegation of neighbors, including Monrovia's mayor, were aspiring to Los Angeles annexation tactics or were merely getting an early start for the grand fishing rush that was to start the next morning.

The feature of the meeting was the showing of an educational picture by representatives of the Johns-Manville Company. The film pictured the mining and manufacture of asbestos which is a mineral found in certain sections of North America. The two largest mines of the Johns-Manville Co. are at Asbestos, Canada, and in Arizona, near Brice.

Society and Personal

It is earnestly hoped that the card party to be given at St. Rita's Auditorium on next Tuesday evening, May 7, will be well attended. Miss C. Reynolds, Miss Leslie Wynne and Mrs. Ralph Solury, who are the hostesses are putting forth a special effort to make the evening a most enjoyable one. As usual, there will be many worth-while prizes.

Although missing by a narrow margin the prize offered for the largest number of inches of club news notes in a contest sponsored by the District Federation, Mrs. Elmer A. Green, press chairman for the local Woman's Club was found to have been the only correspondent who secured acceptance of an article in a magazine during the period of the contest. A story written by Mrs. Green covering the Wistaria Fete was carried in the California Graphic, together with pictures of the famous vine. The records of the contest showed that Mrs. Green's contributions to the local and metropolitan papers totaled in excess of 700 inches, despite the fact that she had been appointed late in the fiscal year to fill a vacancy.

Mrs. Oscar Jacobson came down from Big Bear this week and is in constant attendance at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. George Haggood, who is reported seriously ill at her home on North Baldwin.

A. N. Adams, who has had an office at 22 North Baldwin for twenty-one years has moved into the office at 8 North Baldwin, which he will occupy with Gordon Brooks.

James A. Hall, a retired business man, has moved to Sierra Madre from Los Angeles, and is residing at 430 North Mountain Trail.

Gordon Brooks went fishing Wednesday to try his skill in snaring the elusive trout.

Hubert Aldridge, his mother and sister, Flora, are anticipating an extended motor trip the last of May to Illinois, returning via Oregon and Washington. They will be gone six weeks.

W. G. Miner, who has been visiting in Sierra Madre this winter is returning soon to Connecticut, by boat thru the Panama Canal to New York.

A. N. Carter is making plans to drive to Berkeley the first of the week to get his daughter, Annetta, who has been attending the University of California. They will tour Yosemite Park and expect to return in about two weeks.

Mrs. C. H. Tuggle is in Fresno visiting relatives for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Brown have gone to Long Beach for the summer.

T. A. Neale, Dr. Thomas Warden and Albert Wheeling, are on their annual fishing trip to Otay Dam, near San Diego. In former years these fishermen have usually succeeded in bringing home the limit.

W. J. Ropp was called to Long Beach Sunday on account of the illness of his mother.

Dick Young is now driving a truck for the Los Angeles Creamery. Jay Cooper is replacing him at the Safeway store.

Mr. F. H. Hartman and son attended the ninth anniversary of the Los Angeles Drug Co., of which they are members, Thursday, April 25th, at the Alexandria Hotel. Nearly 300 members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Topping, now residing in Long Beach, were Wednesday visitors with Mrs. H. W. Topping on West Central.

Mrs. W. J. Ropp and daughter will spend Sunday with Mr. Ropp's mother at Long Beach.

Mrs. Harriet E. Thing of Los Angeles was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mesecar 162 East Central.

L. Melzner and A. Wright spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Mr. Melzner's cabin in Big Santa Anita canyon.

Miss Katherine Wright of New York City is making an indefinite visit with her brother, A. Wright.

Geneva Alcott Brown was an over night guest of Mrs. Henry Isaacs, attending the Donald Thayer concert with the Isaacs. She is a former prima donna of the Chicago Opera company.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Helms and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mesecar motored thru Antelope Valley to the Los Angeles county play grounds Sunday, May 28. There was still plenty of snow in the park, very attractive among the pines.

EASE OF BUYING

FOR INSTANCE, in this city your first payment, with your present car included, may be as low as $295, and your monthly payments $37.39. Your present car will probably cover the entire first payment. The H.M.C. Purchase Plan offers the lowest terms available on the balance.

EASE OF OWNING

On our own streets Essex the Challenger under competent observation, averaged 20 miles per gallon. The average owner in this city can expect 18 to 20 miles and upward. Commercial users operating large fleets of Essex cars say that service and maintenance costs, covering millions of miles of operation, are lowest of any car ever tested.

ESSEX challenges the performance, the style, the luxurious roomy comfort of any car at any price, on the basis that no other gives you back so much for every dollar you put in.

That is why the big buying is to Essex. That is why motorists by thousands are turning from past favorites, and trading in their old cars for the big values Essex the Challenger gives. Essex challenges:

IN SPEED—challenging anything the road offers up to 70 miles an hour. IN FAST GETAWAY—any car regardless of size or price. IN RELIABILITY—60 miles an hour for hour after hour.

Essex offers a completeness of fine car equipment formerly identified only with costly cars, and available, when at all, only as "extras," at extra cost on cars of Essex price.

Check these items when you buy—they represent easily above $100 additional value in Essex.

Wide Choice of Colors at No Extra Cost.
The variety is so great you have almost individual distinction

Standard Equipment Includes: 4 hydraulic shock absorbers—electric gauge for gas and oil—radiator shutters—saddle lamps—windshield wiper—glare proof rear view mirror—electro-lock—controls on steering wheel—all bright parts chromium-plated.

WHAT VALUE SERVICE?

A LOCAL merchant, upon being asked recently to take a membership in the chamber of commerce, asked: "Well, what has the chamber of commerce done?"

That merchant would be surprised! First, the present organization took over and liquidated the debts of preceding years. A series of monthly dinners was inaugurated, designed to promote friendliness and to disseminate useful information. Forty thousand small blotters carrying valuable advertising matter were distributed at the Wistaria Fete. Representatives were in daily attendance at the Fete, courteously greeting visitors and answering hundreds of questions daily. The local office is daily sending out letters in answer to inquiries concerning Sierra Madre. The directors hold two meetings each month and are constantly devising ways and means of aiding in the growth and development of the city.

The entertainment committee is engaged on plans for bringing to the people of this city, free of charge, a splendid series of evening entertainments. The first of these will be a presentation of Shakespearean drama by the Community Players.

This month a meeting will be held at which the public will be given valuable information relative to sanitation.

Last week Thursday night the chamber of commerce education committee sponsored a meeting that will have far-reaching effect. It stands out as the most important meeting held in Sierra Madre in years. A survey, made by a corps of high-power experts from the Pasadena school system, headed by Superintendent John A. Sexson, gave to Sierra Madre, WITHOUT COST, an analysis of the local school situation that, under other circumstances, would have cost thousands of dollars.

Mr. Business Man, the local Chamber of Commerce has done SO MUCH in the past four months that the only logical question left for you to ask is: "What can I do to help?"

RECREATION PARK NEEDED

NOW that Sierra Madre baseball fans and players have been sent to the showers in one imperious gesture, the immediate need for a recreation park is evident.

The only available site left, according to those interested, is the city property on East Grand View, and it is expected that an energetic campaign will be instituted to secure the use of five or six acres of the ground for use as a ball diamond.

The feasibility of such a move is hardly open to argument. If a small portion of the city land was so dedicated it would be possible to make permanent improvements that are manifestly impossible on a site where tenure is limited to an indefinite period and subject to fluctuating business needs, or personal considerations.

The ball team members put in many hours of hard labor on the lately lamented grounds, besides much cash. They have nothing to show for their work now but a bunch of callouses and bunions.

Not only would the allocation of a few acres in the city-owned property give the team a home, but it would serve as the first unit of a park project that would be unrivaled in a city of similar size—with negligible cost to the taxpayers.

THE MENACE OF CRIME

WITH characteristic Hoover directness our President last week warned the American people, through the medium of members of the Associated Press, that crime conditions in this country have reached such startling proportions that the very foundation of our nation is threatened. He unhesitatingly stated that life and property in this country are less safe than in any other civilized country in the world!

A tremendous admission to make, but Herbert Hoover does not mince words, nor can we question his sincerity. To be sure Randolph Hearst took occasion to vent his spleen by means of a signed front-page editorial in which he indulged in some cowardly innuendo relative to the period that Mr. Hoover spent in British territory as an engineer. He furthermore showed a deplorable lack of true American citizenship by insinuating that if we questioned the laws of our country in any way we are not duty bound to obey them. This theory was symbolized by comparing undesirable laws to a woman of ill-repute. A mind like Hearst's would run in such channels.

Contrast that sentiment with President Hoover's ardent plea for vigorous law enforcement and law obedience as the only means of combating a crime wave that is not merely ephemeral but of such proportions as to threaten the very foundations of our government. He says that there is only one way to test the adequacy of a law, and that is to enforce it rigidly. If it is not a law that is needed or wanted, popular demand will bring about its repeal in the regular manner. If it is desirable then its merit will come out in the test.

THE tariff section of President Hoover's first message to Congress is of unusual interest to both industry and agriculture. He recommends revision of rates when foreign competition in any industry or producing line proves injurious to American producers and that more power be given to the tariff commission, thus taking the tariff out of politics and putting it on a more scientific basis which recognizes problems involved in international trade. Congress will do well to follow the President's suggestion.

Reservations

By J. R. E.

It is just less than three years ago that "Reservations" said "Howdy!" to "Observations" and now the time has come to say "Goodbye!" at least in the professional sense, for G.B.M. this week steps out, and undoubtedly up, in this strange interlude we call life.

Three years is plenty of time to learn to know the measure of a man, and in the past three years I have come to know George Morgridge pretty well. In his daily dealings with men he has followed the Golden Rule in all its precepts. Possessed of ability and intelligence much above the ordinary, it has been one of the tricks of fate that has kept him in a country newspaper office, when it would appear that in the natural course of events he should have been high in power on a metropolitan sheet. The one plausible explanation I can figure out is that he is too far-seeing to be drawn into the maelstrom of big-town business and away from his dearest possessions—home and family.

The associations of the past three years have been most pleasant for "Reservations." Conditions in the shop and office have been as near ideal as they ever get—considering the human equation.

Personally, I think my late partner was surprised into disposing of his interest in the News. When my new partner and his family visited Sierra Madre they were instantly struck with its "home" charm. They came to the office, asked G.B.M. his price—and the deal was closed. There was not a minute's bargaining.

I do not think Sierra Madre will lose the Morgridge family; they have meant so much in the varied activities of daily life—and Sierra Madre means so much to them. G.B.M. has been a leader in civic and fraternal activities. Mrs. Morgridge has occupied a similar position in club, fraternal and music affairs, while their children, Miss Elizabeth and Howard, have been deservedly popular with their young comrades. Fame is resting lightly upon the heads of these fine children. Miss Elizabeth is even now known as one of the most accomplished young violinists in Southern California. Howard, a youngster of 10, is a real American boy, plus a decided musical ability and aptness in his studies. His unusual ability as a student in the Japanese school is attracting wide attention.

The unanimous wish of Sierra residents is that the Morgridges will continue to make their home here.

Many of our residents are already aware of the charm of my new partner and family. Mr. Asbury is a graduate of DePauw University. As a post graduate student in Wisconsin University he was also on the faculty of the school of journalism in that famous institution. He followed the advice of Horace Greeley and found opportunity for the exercise of his journalistic talents in the Tacoma and Seattle high schools, leaving the pedagogical field to enter active newspaper work as editor and publisher of newspapers in Washington. The southern California climate exerted an appeal that could not be denied, however, and he has spent the past year looking for the ideal location in which to establish a home. He was instantly struck with Sierra Madre's location, climate and people—and here he is.

En passant it should be stated that he spent much time in travel during his college career, and was employed in Porto Rico for a time. He has visited the Philippines and the Orient, and talks Spanish like a native.

Mrs. Asbury is a graduate of Washington University, and has taken post graduate work at Columbia. Following her university work she was very successful as an instructor in domestic science in the Tacoma high schools. She will find splendid opportunities for making use of her experience in educational fields in the everyday life of the community.

"Pal" aged 10, and "Billy," 5, complete the family. They are two real American boys and the Asbury yard is already the Mecca of all the boys in the neighborhood. That indicates instant popularity.

Mrs. Catherine Roe, mother of Wm. Roe, 288 Mariposa, has just purchased the Tavern Inn at Inglewood and left the fore part of the week to take possession. Her friends here will wish her much success in her venture.

Met. Sewer District Up To Voters

The initial step was taken for the reformation of the San Gabriel Valley Metropolitan Sewer District at a meeting of representatives from twelve cities held in Monterey Park Tuesday night. The cities and communities tentatively included in the proposed district are Alhambra, South Pasadena, Monterey Park, Rosemead, Wilmar, San Gabriel, El Monte, Baldwin Park, Covina, Azusa, Glendora and San Marino. One or two of these cities may be left out unless assurance can be given as to the favorable attitude of their people. Altadena, Monrovia, Arcadia and Sierra Madre, which were included in the original district and voted strongly against the bond issue, were not considered in the new district.

There was some hesitancy on the part of those present in accepting Azusa and Glendora in the district in view of the negative vote which had obtained in the former bond election in those cities, but representatives of the cities strongly urged their acceptance in the district, stating that by a straw vote Azusa had voted 6 to 1 and Glendora had voted more than 3 to 1 in favor of being included in the new district.

A. K. Warren, chief engineer of the Metropolitan sewer system was present, and stated that the other foothill cities were considering some means of local sewage disposal. Altadena is considering the construction of a plant, and Monrovia, Arcadia and Sierra Madre are considering the possibility of the joint use of a modern plant.

Another meeting will be held Thursday night, May 9, when it is expected that the extent of the new district will be fully determined and formal request sent to the County Board of Supervisors to start the legal proceedings. After the district has been officially created the detailed plans will be drawn and a bond election called.

NEWS WANTADS PAY DIVIDENDS TO FIRM OVER IN MONROVIA

A five-line "want" in the News columns brought the Monrovia Mattress Company $200 worth of business, according to a representative of the firm who called Monday morning to ask that the ad be re-inserted and run "if" (until forbidden). "The 'want' brought results from the first insertion, and altho it was ordered for only a month, we are still getting orders from Sierra Madre," he stated.

An investigation showed that the ad had been discontinued during April, but that calls had continued, two going in Monday, and all resulting from the "ad" in the News want column.

A dresser, advertised in last Friday's issue, brought five calls to the advertiser before Friday night, and the article was sold to the first caller.

The "Last Spike" will never be driven

—Southern Pacific still building with the West

THE 60th anniversary of the driving of the Golden Spike, May 10, Southern Pacific's Golden Jubilee, finds this western railroad still building. Weaponed with crude tools, courage and vision, the early pioneer had hand-carved a way to the new West. With the vision of the pioneer, the West has carried on, and with it, step by step, Southern Pacific has built.

In the last five years Southern Pacific has built more new line than any other railroad in the United States.

In fifteen years Southern Pacific has built 1481 miles of new line at a cost of 88 million dollars.

Through the barrier of the mighty Cascades it has created a new north and south railway. It has double-tracked its OVERLAND ROUTE line over the Sierra

A new main line has been built through Arizona. From Wendel, California, to Lakeview, Oregon, has been broad-gauged.

Now Southern Pacific is completing a short line transcontinental railway through Southern Oregon and Northern California. The Cascade line of the SHASTA ROUTE and the OVERLAND ROUTE will be connected.

From less than 700 miles in 1869 to 16,520 miles today is but one way of recording Southern Pacific's 60 years of work.

Behind this cold fact of miles built is the epic story of the development of the West. A story of progress indelibly written in the traditions of the West.

Fire Flames
By One of the Boys
Long before 7:30 last Friday evening Louie's "southwest corner" was in action and when "Pete" started the truck at 7:30 sharp the participants in Louie's attraction dropped their argument and rushed to the chute. Only one member of this "southwest fraternity" succeeded in getting on the truck in time to avoid a fine.
Chief Richards instructed Asst. Chief Norris to take charge of the drill work and George certainly gave us a "work out." George evidently is determined to see that the "Hated House" on Central Avenue does not get burned to a crisp. Attaching lines to the plug near the Women's Club, a line was run to the club, as well as the two lines to the "hated house." Just recently our assistant chief was the sole preventative agent of a very probable fatal fire starting at this house. Geo. has just finished drying the dinner dishes and had received his wife's permission to attend a special meeting of the Firemen's Catering Association. As he cut across lots to reach Central Avenue (65 feet wide) he discovered smoke circling from the "H.H." So he bravely gathered up the two or three burning embers and coolly put them out. From then on he has stayed up at night with a conscience that has "appointed" him the lone vigilance committee.
Just the same, the boys had a good practice. Each fellow was drilled in the art of carrying a hose (with pressure) up a ladder. We were also instructed in any position that was in any way doubtful. It is very desirous that each member be able to occupy any position in a competent manner.
We also took advantage of the width of Central Avenue by practicing some body-lifting stunts on this famous pavement. Lee Hibbs gave a favorable demonstration as to how to lift a body and place it for carrying, but he emphatically refused to allow to be the body for Louie Karger to practice on. Joe Swanson did agree to have Louie try his ability on him and was unanimously suspected. Joe WAS dropped and pinned ensued. And believe me it was going good when the asst. chief interfered. It was mentioned then that we acquire a set of boxing gloves. "Scotty" Swanson asked: "Who'll buy 'em?"
All in all the practice was a long one and a beneficial one. The boys were all warmed up for the heated meeting that followed.
Being Gordon Brook's turn to feed, he had employed the "Firemen's Catering Co." to produce the goods. This is a new organization in Sierra Madre and they have sponsored many feeds for the Fire Department of Sierra Madre. The personnel of this company is Joe Swanson, chief cook and coffee-maker; Don Hosford, waiter, and George Norris, doorman. They surely can put up some mean feeds, and it isn't all bologna, either.
The new Grove Street reservoir is nearly completed. The pouring of the concrete for the circular wall was completed last Tuesday. Our able "Scotty" was on the job that day and despite the cloud of cement dust that surrounded him he was constantly on the watch. Joe's duty was to ascertain the time of each mix of concrete. Buck was also noticed about the place.
Vern Udell reports that the recent arrival of a new fireman at his house assures a successful fire department in the future. He also reports that all are doing fine.
The chief has been noticed holding his back of late. This not only signifies the creeping of maturity, but it also indicates that garden work has its effects. His neighbors say that they hear his wife directing the work up there daily. The Firemen's Quartet were howling around the quarters after the meeting last Friday and have threatened to sing at the next S.G.F.A. meeting at Alhambra, providing somebody asks them.
Chief Dunlap of the Los Angeles County Fire Prevention Bureau says "Remove the hazards before the fire." In his demonstration he showed the use of many things that are used as a fuse to carry electricity. The most popular of these is the penny, placed behind the burned-out fuse. A fuse is the safety valve of your electric system, so don't replace a fuse with anything but another fuse.

Survey Shows Great Need For School

most essential. In the schools of Sierra Madre the system of child accounting employed, the records and forms, and office space for the work was found by the survey staff to be very inadequate.

Health Facilities
Health education should be given first consideration in planning the school buildings and educational program of the community. Sierra Madre in its schools is striving to do adequate work in the health preservation of its children.

The physical condition of the building now used by the children in Sierra Madre is such as to make impossible the best health opportunities for children.

Finance
It was found by the survey committee that Sierra Madre possesses sufficient wealth to make adequate provisions for the educational needs and opportunities of her children.

In comparison with districts found in Los Angeles County similar to Sierra Madre, she has not expended the amount for educational opportunities as the great majority of her sister cities.

It is estimated that to provide an adequate educational opportunity for the children of the Sierra Madre elementary school district with modern conveniences, it would cost the owner of property valued at $500,000 an increase of tax annually of the sum of $4.50 in addition to his present taxes.

Buildings and Grounds
The present buildings in which the pupils of the Sierra Madre elementary school district are housed are inadequate.

The inadequacy of these buildings impairs the health, increases the hazard of living and decreases the educational opportunity of the children of that district.

Adequate play space properly equipped is essential to health-building and conservation of children.

Playgrounds and play space allotted to children in the Sierra Madre school district are such in amount and kind as to render health development through play almost impossible.

Recommendations
The survey staff recommends that the elementary school district of Sierra Madre construct a modern school plant as indicated by the floor plan submitted (in blue prints shown at the meeting). As planned, this building will face the south, its location will be close to the south boundary of the present school grounds. The wing to the west will be two stories in height and will provide facilities for the classrooms for larger boys and girls. There will be ten classrooms in this wing.

The central unit will contain the auditorium and stage, with the administration services indicated, namely, the public office, principal's private office, clinic room, teachers' rest room, library, and the necessary facilities incidental thereto. The east wing will contain three classrooms and the kindergarten.

This wing will be one story in height and provision will be made for the future additional building immediately back of the corridor in case the pupil population should necessitate providing more classroom facilities than those incorporated in the original unit. In the proposed plans these future additions may be made and will constitute an integral part of your plant; they will in no sense destroy the unity or balance of the building. At the same time their absence will not be noted during the period when there is no need for them.

The second recommendation of the survey staff is that there be provided adequate playgrounds lying to the north end of the proposed building. This recommendation involves the purchase of certain lots to the east of the present grounds now occupied by residences. The total extent of the area to be acquired will be determined by the amount necessary to bring the total area provided to approximately five acres. A rough estimate indicates that this will be done when the district has acquired the lots as far north as the projected upper curb of Laurel Avenue.

The survey staff believe that it is not necessary or advisable to secure the entire block since the upper limits of the property are so much higher than the lower; and since the difficulty for treating and handling this steeply sloping ground is so great, it is the opinion of the survey staff that the first cost plus the expense of maintenance be inconsistent with the amount of service to be obtained therefrom. On the other hand, by securing the lots to the east of the present location, ground much more accessible to the building will be added to the grounds and the district will acquire splendid shade trees which will be a tremendous asset in providing adequate recreational facilities for the school and for the community.

The present playgrounds are poorly developed and are so broken by improperly placed and inadequately constructed walls that they do not contribute to the adequate functioning of the physical education and playground activities. The present retaining walls cut up the play areas but do not prevent erosion and damage through drainage. In the financial provision there should be included sufficient amount to set up the retaining walls, doing necessary grading, and providing adequate drainage. The exact manner in which this is to be accomplished has not been worked out. It would involve engineering services which the survey staff do not feel justified in employing at this stage of the proceeding.

There is adequate playground apparatus already provided; this apparatus could be salvaged and set up on the new grounds. With the building as proposed, the kindergarten children would be provided with adequate playgrounds at the extreme east of the site. The small children would be provided for north of and closely adjacent to their classrooms. The older children would have adequate and ample grounds to the north and west of the proposed building. In all classes the playgrounds should be immediately accessible to children who use them and would be under the immediate and direct supervision of the entire teaching corps.

All matters pertaining to fire protection, proper lighting, heating, ventilating, sanitation and service facilities may be adequately cared for in the proposed plan.

The survey staff recommends that the elementary school district of Sierra Madre make an expenditure of $185,000 to cover the cost of the above recommended provision. Building plant, $165,000. Improving grounds, $20,000.

The survey staff further recommends that the Sierra Madre elementary school district float the amount of bonds necessary to make available funds for the above desired improvements. The survey staff believes that a 20-year serial bond would be the most desirable kind to employ in meeting this financial obligation.

Burbanks Answer Call of the Road With Summer Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank left last Monday morning for an automobile trip of indefinite duration. They expect to reach Mr. Burbank's old home in New England, going east by way of the Gulf states and then up the Atlantic coast. On their return home they have in mind a trip along the northern border, making a complete circuit of the United States. Mr. Burbank says, however, they are going without any very definite program or schedule and will be free to roam as they please.

H. P. Coleman left Wednesday morning for Memphis, Tennessee, where he will aid in settling up the estate of his father, who passed away a year ago. Mr. Coleman will be gone about a month.

Humphries Again Head Of Red Cross

Plains Laid for Action in Case of Any Local Disaster

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the local Red Cross chapter met at the City Hall Monday, April 29, at 4 p. m. with the following members present: W. R. Humphries, chairman; H. C. Reavis, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Mrs. J. H. Wright, Mrs. Fred Griebel, Mrs. M. D. Welsher, Mrs. R. M. Barker, Mrs. Hortense Hill and Mrs. W. C. Gruit.

The disaster committee is still working on a skeleton plan for action in case of local disaster and will be able to report fully at the May meeting. Mr. Humphries was authorized to make definite arrangements for a second course in First Aid as soon as possible. The expenses of this course are met by the local Red Cross, and any one in the community is eligible. The class will probably meet once a week and should be of special interest to mothers, teachers, Scout leaders, hikers, employers and employees in occupations involving any degree of hazard, and all who are planning vacations and camping trips. All letters received by the chapter with reference to government rulings concerning disabled soldiers are to be kept on file at the library, where they may be accessible to the general public for information.

Mrs. M. D. Welsher reported that she expects to begin work shortly on transcribing a series of short stories into Braille for the blind soldiers at Sawtelle. The city nurse, Mrs. Barker, was instructed to make the necessary purchase to complete the first aid kit that the firemen are preparing, to supplement aid being given by the city. Mr. Humphries was authorized to consult with the Canyon Improvement Association regarding a Red Cross exhibition of life-saving work at the grand opening of the canyon pool.

Mrs. Griebel, chairman of the production committee, reported that she has received instructions to prepare the following articles: Six sweaters, 15 children's garments, 12 small pillows, 24 pillow slips to match, and 15 Christmas bags to be ready by September 1, to be distributed among American soldiers stationed in foreign parts. These bags will contain such articles as shaving outfits, tooth brushes, writing materials, playing cards, cigarettes, etc. In the past many of these Christmas articles have been contributed by people in Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Griebel expressed the hope that the same might be true this year, and that church or other organizations would respond to the call for help in production, especially knitters for the six sweaters.

The Red Cross Courier, the official publication of the American National Red Cross, issued twice a month, is now on the magazine rack in the library, and a copy has also been placed in the city schools. Recent numbers contain interesting accounts of rehabilitation work in Porto Rico following the hurricane, airplane ambulances, Junior Red Cross work, combatting epidemics, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Delvecci entertained at a bridge dinner last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Goff, Mr. and Mrs. Craig.
